Sacramento, CA – Sacramento Superior Court invites 6th-12th grade students to enter its 2nd annual Jury Appreciation Week Poster Contest.

This unique opportunity encourages young artists to create original, hand-crafted posters that visually express the importance of jury service and the role jurors play in access to justice.

"We look forward to seeing what young artists submit and how they illustrate their perspectives of Jury Service," Jury Commissioner Ginger Durham said. "This contest not only encourages artistic expression but also an understanding and appreciation for the role of jurors in our justice system."
