

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA

COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO

STANDING ORDER OF THE
SACRAMENTO SUPERIOR COURT

No. SSC-03-1

ORDER: REASSIGNMENT OF
SOUTH SACRAMENTO COURTS
CASES

On January 16, 2003, the Judges of the Sacramento Superior Court received and considered the report of the South County Courts Assessment Committee, Judge Henke's response and correspondence from the public and community leaders.

Upon deliberation the Judges of the Court voted to close the courts in Elk Grove, Walnut Grove and Galt. Pursuant to this decision the following standing order is issued:

IT IS THEREFORE THE ORDER OF THIS COURT:

1. Limited Civil matters ($5,000 to $25,000) and post-disposition misdemeanors and traffic cases will be reassigned to the Gordon D. Schaber Courthouse, located in downtown Sacramento at 720 Ninth Street, Room 102, Civil and Criminal Divisions. The remaining case types which include traffic infractions, small claims and unlawful detainers will be reassigned to the Carol Miller Justice Center, located at 301 Bicentennial Circle, Sacramento.

2. Effective Monday February 10, 2003, all filings and citations issued on or after this date will cease at the South Sacramento Courts and be directed to the appropriate location as outlined above.

3. All pending matters currently assigned at the South Sacramento Courts that cannot be concluded within 45-60 days of this order shall be redirected to the appropriate locations for further action.

Date: January 30, 2003

MICHAEL T. GARCIA
Presiding Judge of the Superior Court
