NATIONAL COUNCIL ON CRIME &
DELINQUENCY ACCESS TO SEALED
JUVENILE RECORDS FOR RESEARCH

ORDER AUTHORIZING THE NATIONAL COUNCIL ON CRIME & DELINQUENCY
TO ACCESS SEALED JUVENILE RECORDS
PURSUANT TO WELFARE AND INSTITUTIONS CODE SECTION 787 FOR RESEARCH PURPOSES

---

Pursuant to Article 20 of Chapter 2, Part 1. Division 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code (“WIC”) a juvenile case filed record may be sealed and cannot be accessed unless otherwise authorized by law. In any case in which a record seal has occurred with the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court, the Court may authorize access to information contained in sealed records for purposes of conducting juvenile justice related research so long as the Court is satisfied that appropriate protections are taken as to the confidentiality of information and that any personally identifying information relating to the individual whose sealed record is accessed is not further released, disseminated, or published by or through the researcher or research organization.

The County of Sacramento Probation Department (“Probation”) has been working with the National Council on Crime & Delinquency (“NCCD”) on an evaluation study to document and assess the implementation of the Title IV-E Waiver, which examines services and systems that help achieve safety, permanency and well-being for children and families involved in the juvenile justice system. Data necessary to complete the study is contained within the electronic case management system and physical records of Probation. Accordingly, Probation and NCCD are requesting a Court order granting access to sealed records pursuant to WIC section 787(b).

Probation and NCCD agree that if the Court exercises its discretion to grant this request, they will abide by the terms and conditions of this order. It is the intent of the Court to grant the petition to the extent necessary for the implementation of this Evaluation.

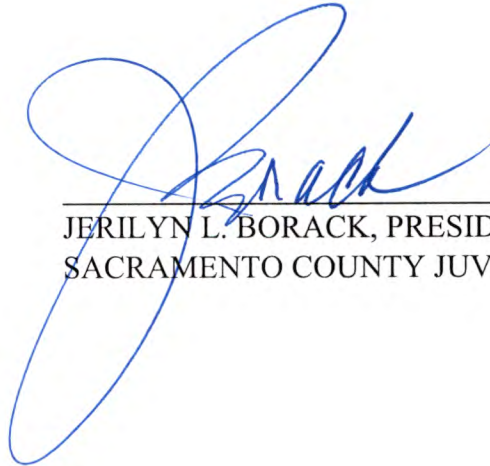

FOR GOOD CAUSE SHOWN, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The Probation Department and NCCD may access sealed juvenile records pursuant to section 787 for the purposes stated herein.
2. The Evaluation shall include a methodology for the appropriate protection of the confidentiality of each individual whose sealed record is accessed pursuant to this Order.

3. Personally identifying information relating to any individual whose sealed record is accessed pursuant to this Order may not be further released, disseminated, or published by or through Probation or NCCD.
4. Probation and NCCD shall take all reasonable measures to ensure the confidentiality of the personally identifying information from these sealed records and to ensure that only those authorized under this Order have access to the sealed records for research purposes.
5. Any person receiving records and/or information pursuant to this Order shall maintain the confidentiality of such records and the information, and shall use them only to the extent necessary for the purposes of this Evaluation.
6. Any unauthorized disclosure of the confidential information or failure to comply with the Terms and Conditions of this Order may result in the vacation of this Order and/or may be punishable as contempt of Court.
7. This Order is not intended to replace, nullify, or conflict with any existing policies of the Juvenile Court, Probation Department, or any other public or private agency.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
