FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SACRAMENTO REGION DIVERSITY CAREER FAIR – February 26, 2022

The court is pleased to announce its participation in the Sacramento Region Diversity Career Fair on February 26, 2022. The Career Fair is presented by the United States Attorneys Office for the Eastern District of California; the University of the Pacific; McGeorge School of Law; the University of California, Davis School of Law; the Federal Bar Association Sacramento Chapter; and many co-sponsor entities from our local legal community.

The Sacramento Region Diversity Career Fair is being launched to help promote diversity within the legal profession, and is open to law students, attorneys and judges. It offers an online platform where employers can post jobs and applicants can submit resumes. The Career Fair gives employers the opportunity to connect with diverse candidates for further or current openings and will be followed by a networking reception.
